

2415.04 TITLE I – DISTRICT-WIDE PARENTAL INVOLVEMENT

GENERAL EXPECTATIONS

The school district will put into operation programs, activities, and procedures for the involvement of parents in all of its schools with Title I, Part A programs, consistent with Section 1118 of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA). Those programs, activities, and procedures will be planned and operated with meaningful consultation with parents of participating children.

Consistent with Section 1118, the school district will work with its schools to ensure that the required school-level parental involvement policies meet the requirements of Section 1118(b) of the ESEA, and each include, as a component, a school-parent compact consistent with Section 1118(d) of the ESEA.

The school district will incorporate this District-Wide Parental Involvement Policy into its school district's plan developed under Section 1112 of the ESEA.

In carrying out the Title I, Part A parental involvement requirements, to the extent practicable, the school district and its schools will provide full opportunities for the participation of parents with limited English proficiency, parents with disabilities, and parents of migratory children, including providing information and school reports required under Section 1111 of the ESEA in an understandable and uniform format, including alternative formats upon request, and to the extent practicable, in a language parents understand.

If the school district's plan for Title I, Part A, developed under Section 1112 of the ESEA, is not satisfactory to the parents of participating children, the school district will submit any parent comments with the plan when the school district submits the plan to the New Jersey Department of Education.

In the event the school district is required to reserve and spend at least one percent of the district's Title I, Part A allocation, the school district will involve the parents of children served in Title I, Part A schools in decisions about how these funds will be spent and will ensure that not less than ninety-five percent of the one percent reserved goes directly to the schools.

The school district will be governed by the following statutory definition of parental involvement, and expects Title I schools in the district will carry out programs, activities, and procedures in accordance with this definition:

Parental involvement means the participation of parents in regular, two-way, and meaningful communication involving pupil academic learning and other school activities, ensuring:

1. That parents play an integral role in assisting their child's learning;
2. That parents are encouraged to be actively involved in their child's education at school;
3. That parents are full partners in their child's education and are included, as appropriate, in decision-making and on advisory committees to assist in the education of their child; and
4. The carrying out of other activities, such as those described in Section 1118 of the ESEA.

In the event the State of New Jersey or the New Jersey Department of Education has a Parental Information and Resource Center, the school district will inform parents and parental organizations of its purpose and existence.

Below is a description of how the district will implement or accomplish each of the following components outlined below (Section 1118(a)(2), ESEA):

1. The district will take the following actions to involve parents in the joint development of its district-wide parental involvement plan under Section 1112 of the ESEA:
 - a. Parent meetings related to planning, review and improvement
2. The district will take the following actions to involve parents in the process of school review and improvement under Section 1116 of the ESEA:
 - a. Parent meetings
 - b. Surveys
 - c. Annual presentation of pupil assessment performance
 - d. Parent committees.

3. The district will provide the following necessary coordination, technical assistance, and other support to assist Title I, Part A schools in planning and implementing effective parental involvement activities to improve pupil academic achievement and school performance:
 - a. Professional development on parent involvement includes workshops, presentations, collaborative study of professional literature and planning.
4. The school district will coordinate and integrate parental involvement strategies in Part A with parental involvement strategies under programs such as: Head Start, Reading First, Early Reading First, Even Start, Parents As Teachers, and State-operated preschool programs, by:
 - a. Share information on the district web page and community bulletin boards; and
 - b. Involve-community stakeholders in meetings and training.
5. The school district will take the following actions to conduct, with the involvement of parents, an annual evaluation of the content and effectiveness of this Parental Involvement Policy in improving the quality of its Title I, Part A schools. The evaluation will include identifying barriers to greater participation by parents in parental involvement activities (with particular attention to parents who are economically disadvantaged, are disabled, have limited English proficiency, have limited literacy, or are of any racial or ethnic minority background). The school district will use the findings of the evaluation about its Parental Involvement Policy and activities to design strategies for more effective parental involvement, and to revise, if necessary (and with the involvement of parents) its parental involvement policies.
 - a. Conduct a beginning-of-year information session for Title I parents:
 - 1) Hosted by district Title I Coordinator and presented by Title I teaching staff members;
 - 2) Inform parents of targeted assisted schools about Title I policy and structure of program; and
 - 3) Invite parents to be part of Title I parent committee.

- b. Conduct parent Title I sessions throughout year:
 - 1) Hosted by District Title I coordinator; committee comprised of targeted assisted schools principals, Title I teaching staff members, and parents of Title I pupils;
 - 2) Discuss and evaluate Title I policy and parental involvement; and
 - 3) Establish strategies to create a more effective Title 1 program.
- c. Parent surveys in all Title I-funded schools;
- d. Review of all evaluative feedback and data by the Title I-funded schools' principals, the Assistant Superintendent for Curriculum, Instruction and Programs and the teaching staff members involved in the Title I-funded programs.

The school district will build the schools' and parents' capacity for strong parental involvement, in order to ensure effective involvement of parents and to support a partnership among the school involved, parents, and the community to improve pupil academic achievement, through the following activities specifically described below:

- 1. The school district will, with the assistance of its Title I, Part A schools, provide assistance to parents of children served by the school district or school, as appropriate, in understanding topics such as:
 - Standards adopted by the State of New Jersey;
 - New Jersey's pupil academic achievement standards;
 - The New Jersey and local academic assessments including alternate assessments;
 - The requirements of Part A;
 - How to monitor their child's progress; and
 - How to work with educator;and by undertaking these actions:
 - a. Parent-Teacher conferences;

- b. Individual Student Improvement Plans; and
 - c. Student Progress Reports.
2. The school district will, with the assistance of its schools, provide materials and training to help parents work with their children to improve their children's academic achievement, such as literacy training, and using technology, as appropriate, to foster parental involvement, by:
- a. Providing content education where needed; and
 - b. Reviewing with parents activities for supporting children's learning such as monitoring attendance and homework completions as well as volunteering for classroom activities.
3. The school district will, with the assistance of its schools and parents, educate its teaching staff members, pupil services personnel, Principals and other staff in how to reach out to, communicate with, and work with parents as equal partners in the value and utility of contributions of parents, and in how to implement and coordinate parent programs and build ties between parents and schools, by:
- a. PTSO membership involvement;
 - b. Parent committees; and
 - c. Parent workshops and presentations.
4. The school district will, to the extent feasible and appropriate, coordinate and integrate parental involvement programs and activities with Head Start, Reading First, Early Reading First, Even Start, Home Instruction Programs for Preschool Youngsters, the Parents as Teachers Program, and public preschool and other programs, and conduct other activities, such as parent resource centers, that encourage and support parents in fully participating in the education of their children, by:
- a. Conducting parent workshops and programs; and
 - b. Participating in community family programs.

5. The school district will take the following actions to ensure that information related to the school and parent programs, meetings, and other activities, is sent to the parents of participating children in an understandable and uniform format, including alternative formats upon request, and, to the extent practicable, in a language the parents can understand:
 - a. Place flyers in backpacks;
 - b. Post information on district website; and
 - c. NCLB-Title I Parent Resource page on district website.

ADOPTION

This Title I District-Wide Parental Involvement Policy has been developed jointly, and agreed on with parents of children participating in Title I, Part A programs. This Policy will be distributed to all parents of participating Title I, Part A children in an understandable and uniform format and, to the extent practicable, in a language the parents understand, at the beginning of each school year or when the child is determined eligible and begins participating in Title I, Part A programs.
